

Dear International students

The 26th International Exchange Tour at Maruyama Zoo

We are pleased to announce that Sapporo Naka-hojin-kai (The corporation of juridical persons in central Sapporo) will host the 26th international exchange tour at Maruyama Zoo for International students (and their families) studying in Sapporo.

Hojin-kai is a nationwide organization that assists company owners and managers interested in acquiring accurate knowledge about taxation, effective management, and contributing to society.

We would like to help participants enjoy their stay in Japan and develop mutual understanding and friendship. If you wish to participate in this tour, please submit your application in advance via the Google Form.
